

BUSINESS ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Ladies and Gentlemen, I give you: THE FISH KING!

At regular intervals throughout the year, the Directors at the Lincolnshire Telegraph select organisations that have best demonstrated a proven ability to go that extra mile in not only meeting but exceeding the needs of their customers.

In line with this philosophy, and in recognition of the company's continual commitment to provide customers with the top quality products and peerless service, it gives us pleasure to announce - The Fish King has been selected to receive the BA Award for the Lincoln Chip Shop of the Year 2009.

When asked for his comments on receiving this award, owner Thas Frangeskou said: "Everyone here is absolutely over the moon. It's great to be recognised with such a prestigious award."

The Business Achievement Award stands as an instantly recognisable seal of approval, which places the recipient amongst the finest in the country and serves as a recommendation to potential customers.

There are several criteria for nomination. In this case, first-class customer service, outstanding value for money and a commitment peas, possibly the most traditional dish you can get here is £5.50. In the restaurant it's £6.10 and with that you get bread and butter and a cup of tea.

"We have quite a few specials on throughout the day. I'm really proud of what we have here. The Fish King is your traditional, out and out chippy."

second to none won it for Thas and his team. "We are constantly looking to improve the service we offer. We ask every customer that comes into the restaurant whether they've enjoyed the meal and if there is any way we could improve the service", Thas explained. "Most people say the portions are too big, but we certainly aren't going to start cutting back!"

Having started out at the bottom carrying potatoes around for his father 20 years ago, Thas brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to The Fish King. Whether it's knowing what his customers want or having that business acumen, Thas can be proud of his achievements to date.

"Here you get fantastic value for money. Fish, chips and mushy
